MISCELLANEOUS.

A NEW LIGHT. EKROSENE, OR COAL OIL.

The incensity of the light obtained from this oil will be found of exceed that of any other oil or liquid heretofore known to the The intensity of the light obtained from one of war or to be exceed that of any other oil or liquid hereiofore known to the public.

This oil being a pure distillation from coai, without the admixture of spirits of turpendine or alcohol, is warranted to be not explosive. Insurance companies allow it to be used without additional premium.

Those who read or write much at night will find it a great acquisition, as the light is remarkably steady and softto the eye. For general family use, burung in size abouts, shipping, railroat cars, churches, tactories, hotels and lighthouses, this oil is as yet unequalled.

It burns britisantly witnout smoking or ernsting the wick; does not deterforste or evaporate by exposure, and is not affected by the coldest weather.

The various patented lamps to be found at the store of the undersigned are recommended as the best adapted to the peculiar qualities of the oil, each iamp giving a light equal to two six foot gas burners.

To the Public.—It is well known that by virtue of diplomatic powers invested in him. Commodore Perry succeeded in regolding a treaty with Japan, whereby that government stipulated to open their borts for free trade with the United in regolding a treaty with Japan, whereby that government stipulated to open their borts for free trade with the United States. We do not wish to detract from the meed of praise due the Commodore, yet we holdly assert that his mission would have failed had it not been for the mysterious inducence exercised by an indivisual named Julius Quackenbush, who included the Japanese government to comply with the terms. This gentleman may now be seen at 444 Broadway, where be with nightly prove the truth of this assertion. Let justice be done.
